

Summer Reading 2011

Providence High School
Modern Language Department
Mrs. Parodi – Room 303

Attention Students and Parents:

In order to fully prepare students to be life-long contributors of their church, state, county and world, we make every effort to promote the ideology of the life-long learner in and outside of school. To that end, at the end of the school year, AP Spanish, Spanish III Honors and Spanish III students are required to read mandatory literature and/or assigned study guides in alignment with the educational philosophies of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, the Sisters of Providence and the PHS Spanish Department.

This year, the required materials are as follows:

Mandatory Reading Guide:

For Spanish A.P.

1) Read the novel Romeo y Julieta by William Shakespeare and complete the following sections:

- a) Biografía del autor
- b) Comprension de lectura
- c) Apreciacion critica
- d) Creatividad
- e) Argumento de la obra

2) Get the Thematic Vocabulary Booklet by Triangulo (from Mrs. Parodi's room 303).

You will be tested on this material the first week of the fall semester.

For Spanish III Honors

1) Read the Study Guide “Guía de Estudio Sobre Cervantes, la Caballería, y la Historia de Don Quijote” and answer the questions at the end.

Download the PDF from the portal OR get it online here:

<http://www.milagro.org/5-History/Study-Guides/El-Quijote/El%20Quijote%20Guia%20de%20estudio.pdf>

2) You will be tested on this material the first week of the fall semester.

For Spanish III

1) Get the Thematic Vocabulary Booklet (from Mrs. Parodi's room 303).

2) You will be tested on this material the first week of the fall semester.

Have a great summer vacation, ENJOY!!!